

Eli Brunelle is a Minneapolis based singer, songwriter, and multi-instrumentalist blending jazz-influenced R&B, alt-pop, indie-folk, and soulful groove. Known for his bass-driven arrangements and poetic lyricism, his music balances musicianship with modern songwriting.

Brunelle has refined his craft through formal study at Berklee College of Music, and through collaboration, including work with fellow musicians LaSalle, IAMJOY, and LA Buckner.

His work has been featured by outlets including Stereofox and Mostly Minnesota, and he continues to build a reputation through music releases and dynamic live performances.
